
HE ladies in charge of St. Ann's hospital fair held a meeting Monday afternoon in the hospital parlors. A vote of thanks to all who assisted in making the fair a success was taken, to the merchants for the donations; to the public generally for the liberal patronage; to the workmen who gave their labor, and especially to Mrs. L. G. Smith, Mrs. David Cohen, sr., Mrs. C. A. Tuttle, Mrs. Dr. Stephens and Miss Nelle Barnes for their able assistance.

The total sum earned, $5,696, was turned over to Sister Irene, who is in charge of the hospital. She thankfully charge of the hospital. She thankfully accepted the money and expressed her gratitude to the patronesses of the entertainment. A few imments were spent in social chat and the sisters served dainty refreshments. This closed the labors of the Fair association and the president, Mrs. James Shields, declared the meeting adjacence.

IN BUTTE.

Butte, June 21.—The signs of the times are that it is going to be a lively summer in Butte's society circles. As far as that is concerned, it has been unusually lively during the greater part of the winter and spring. Many of the ladies will leave correct. of the ladies will leave town for the summer, but during the week several of Butte's ladies who have taken a prominent part in the city's social en-tertainments returned to Butte and will remain here for the summer. The of some of the social ladies means that they are going to keep quiet. Undoubt-edly they are here for fun and an ex-ceptionally lively summer is believed to be on the tapis.

Among those who returned to Butte this week were Mrs. C. H. Palmer and Miss Bessie Palmer, from Boston; Mrs. Dr. Freund, from New York; Mrs. Thomas Lavelle, who has been visiting at her old home in Idaho; Mrs. W. M. Tuohy, who has been visiting at her old home in Kentucky; and Mr and Mrs. M. J. Connell, who have spent the winter East.

Deer Lodge, June 22.-The citizens of Deer Lodge have cause to be proud of their public schools. The greater part of last week was devoted to the closing of last week was devoted to the closing exercises. The entertainment given Friday morning at the hall was indeed interesting, and reflected much credit upon Professor Wolfe and his assistant teachers. One of the prettiest things presented on the stage was the wreath-drill by a class of 28 little girls and boys in Miss Wiles' room, though the exercises were all excentionally the exercises were all exceptionally good. The music was also well exe-cuted. The graduating exercises in the evening, June 14, were attended by a large and appreciative audience. The stage was beautifully decorated in the class colors, pink and white. The sub-

IN LIVINGSTON.

Livingston, June 22.—The members of the Woman's Relief corps of this city were greatly disappointed Wednesday because of the failure of their national president. Mrs. Emma R. Wallace of Chicago, to stop over here on her re-turn home from a trip to the West The local corps had been informed by the Missoula corps, where Mrs. Wallace was entertained for a day, that the lady would arrive in Livingston Wednesday morning and remain be-tween trains. Acting on this information the members of the corps made ex tensive arrangements for the reception and entertainment of their distinguished guest. They decorated their hall with flowers and potted plants on Tuesday evening and prepared for an elaborate banquet to be served Wednes-day evening. When Mrs. Wallace left Missoula she found that she could not so she left word to have the ladies of Livingston notified to this effect. The letter, however, did not arrive until Wednesday morning. Though the ladies felt their disappointment keenly after having gone to so much trouble for the contemplated entertainment of Falls seems to be enjoying a rest which has continued for many weeks, and it is not probable that there will be any revival in social circles until fall.

IN BOZEMAN.

Bozeman. June 22.-The commence ment exercises of the Bozeman High school were held in the opera house on Friday evening. The attendance was large and every feature of the exercises was of a high order, receiving the hearty appliause of the audience. The stage was decorated with potted plants and looked very pretty with the row of young ladies in white at the front, and behind them their teachers and the Bozeman school board. The graduates this year were all young ladies and it was remarked that a girl never looks so sweet as at commencement it be upon her wedding day. roll this year was Lillie Railsback, Mary Lewis, Edith Black, Gertrude Brandley, Emma Brandenburg and Eva Eckenbeck. The commencement pro-gramme was as follows:

"Hobbies" Mary Lewis
Violin solo, "Carnival of Venice" Prof. Wright
"Effect of Science and Art on Civilization".
Edith Black

More than two hundred bouquets were carried to the sweet girl graduates by little Eva Maxey and Vida. Work, and although it was quite a task for them they did their part nicely. The flowers were beautiful. They were made up to represent everything from a barn to a sailing vessel and from a harp to a sailing vessel, and lay in huge piles which formed a windrow of fragrant blossoms in front of the graduates. Prof. W. E. Harmon has held the position of superintendent of the Bozeman public schools for a number of versions has given the number of years, and has given the best of satisfaction.
